2024-2025

Hello There!

Welcome to Isle Study Centre

We are really pleased to have you here and myself and my team are looking forward to getting to know you.

When I started this centre, I wanted to create a space where you can grow in a safe place - where YOU have freedom to explore things you like, explore new interests and hobbies, and work on your individual weaknesses and strengths with our help.

We talk, we are here to listen always, we offer advice - but we also know everyone is different and we will do everything when YOU are ready. We respect your wishes totally. We work with you to overcome trauma and tough issues together; nothing is off limits to discuss and help you grow. We will work together with you 121 at YOUR own level and speed. Myself and my Team will support you every day.

I really am looking forward to getting to know you more and helping you grow.

Dee.
